Re: In the Matter of Ripple Labs, Inc. (NY-9875), SEC v. Ripple Labs, Inc., et al., No. 20 Civ. 10832 (S.D.N.Y.) (AT)
OIA File No. 2021-00506-013

Dear [REDACTED]:

The staff of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") requests the assistance of the Securities Commission of Malaysia ("SCM") pursuant to the May 2002 IOSCO Multilateral Memorandum of Understanding ("MMOU"), to which the SEC and SCM are parties. We make this request in connection with the above-referenced civil action concerning possible violations of the U.S. federal securities laws.

Specifically, SEC staff requests the assistance of the SCM to obtain documents and information from Okex, a digital asset trading platform with offices in Malaysia, as described below. [REDACTED]

I. DESCRIPTION OF THE FACTS AND PURPOSE FOR WHICH THE ASSISTANCE IS SOUGHT

On December 22, 2020, the SEC filed a civil injunctive action in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, alleging that Ripple and its current and former CEOs (Brad Garlinghouse (“Garlinghouse”) and Christian Larsen (“Larsen”)) violated Section 5 of the Securities Exchange of 1933 (“Securities Act”), 15 U.S.C. s 77e (“Section 5”). The SEC alleges, among other things, that the Defendants violated Section 5 by offering and selling digital asset securities known as “XRP” without a registration statement being filed or in effect as to such offers and sales (the “Civil Action”).

IV. ASSISTANCE REQUESTED

SEC staff respectfully seeks the assistance of the SCM in obtaining the following documents from Okex (located at 18th Floor, Menara TA One 22, Jalan P. Ramlee, Kuala Lumpur 50250), for the time period July 1, 2016 to the present:

1. All documents and communications concerning XRP, including, not limited to: a) sales of XRP by Ripple, Garlinghouse, and/or Larsen.
2. All documents and communications concerning any agreement or potential agreement between Okex and Ripple regarding XRP.
3. All documents and communications concerning any consideration, including but not limited to XRP or cash, received by Okex in connection with any agreement identified in paragraph 2.

SEC staff also requests the assistance of the SCM in having Okex authenticate the documents produced in response to this request (the “Requested Documents”). SEC staff seek the ability to introduce the Requested Documents as evidence in a U.S. court proceeding. In order for SEC staff to introduce the Requested Documents as evidence, we need to obtain a sworn certificate of authenticity of business records (“Certificate”) that the documents were made and kept by Okex in the ordinary course of business. The Certificate should include a specific description of the documents being produced and be signed by an individual who has knowledge of the procedures for maintaining records at Okex, respectively. Attached please find a sample Certificate to be executed by a records custodian or other qualified person at Okex.

We ask that you send any records produced in electronic format to the following email addresses: Foreign.Requests@sec.gov; cc: OIA.DocumentProductions@sec.gov; and [REDACTED]. If the electronic records are more than 12 MB, please contact us for additional instructions. Please send any records produced in hard copy to the address on this letterhead.

V. CONFIDENTIALITY

This letter is confidential and privileged under U.S. law. Pursuant to Securities Exchange Act Subsection 24(f)(1), the U.S. SEC does not waive any privileges (including, but not limited to, work product, deliberative process, and law enforcement privileges) in transferring the information to or permitting the information to be used by the SCM. We ask that this letter and its contents not be communicated to any third party without the authorization of SEC staff. We also ask that you notify us of any legally enforceable demand for this letter and that you assert any appropriate legal exemptions or privileges with respect to this letter as may be appropriate. If the SCM is required to notify any third party about this inquiry, we would respectfully ask that you discuss such notice requirements with us before communicating with the third party.

So that the SEC may seek to protect your response, please notify us on an ongoing basis if communications and information you share with us in connection with this matter contain or may contain: (1) privileged information (and, if so, identify privileges that apply) and/or (2) records, which if publicly disclosed, would violate the laws applicable to your agency. See Exchange Act Sections 24(f)(2) and 24(d).

Thank you in advance for your assistance in this matter. If you have any questions, please contact me or Owen Granke by email at [REDACTED] or by telephone at (202) 551-[REDACTED].

Sincerely,

Matthew Greiner
